In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established: (Check one or both, as applicable.)

- ☒ by clear and convincing evidence the defendant is a danger to the community and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

PART II -- WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(Check one or both, as applicable.)

- ☒ (1) I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence as to danger that:
Mr. Joe advised that he consumes 18 beers per sitting. Based upon this fact and others, the Court concludes that Defendant has a serious substance abuse problem. The investigation revealed that the victim suffered numerous fractures and other injuries related to child abuse. Defendant described, to law enforcement agents, his role in the abuse. The Court concludes that all four of the Bail Reform factors favor detention. The Court also concludes that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of others and the community if Defendant were released.
- ☐ (2) I find by a preponderance of the evidence as to risk of flight that:
- ☐ The defendant has no significant contacts in the District of Arizona.
  - ☐ The defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance.
  - ☐ The defendant has a prior criminal history.
  - ☐ There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered.
  - ☐ The defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law enforcement.
  - ☐ The defendant is facing a minimum mandatory of Click here to enter text. incarceration and a maximum of Click here to enter text.
- ☐ The defendant does not dispute the information contained in the Pretrial Services Report, except:
Click here to enter text.
- ☒ In addition:
Defendant has no prior criminal history. Six family members were present in court on behalf of Defendant.

The Court incorporates by reference the findings in the Pretrial Services Report which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.

PART III -- DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

PART IV -- APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that should an appeal of this detention order be filed with the District Court, it is counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before the District Judge. Pursuant to Rule 59, FED.R.CRIM.P., Defendant shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the District Court. Failure to timely file objections may waive the right to review. See Rule 59, FED.R.CRIM.P.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the hearing before the District Judge to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the potential third party custodian.

Dated this 6th day of February, 2018.

Honorable John Z. Boyle
